

Patient-friendly Surgery - CERAMENT® G and CERAMENT® V

Date: Friday 12 September

Time: 12:50 – 13:50

Room: Plenary Room

Agenda

- Welcome & Introduction - Prof. Ricardo Sousa
- Patient-friendly Surgery; SOLARIO & CERAMENT G and CERAMENT V - Prof. Martin McNally
- CERAMENT in the Developing World: Early Results from 100 Cases of FRI and Chronic Osteomyelitis - Prof. Nando Ferreira
- CERAMENT G - Enabling shorter hospital stay in Bone Infection Management - Ass. Prof. Paul Matuszewski
- An Italian Trauma Centre's Experience with CERAMENT - Dr. Domenico Tigani
- Q&A - Prof. Ricardo Sousa
- Summary and Key Takeaways - Prof. Ricardo Sousa

Chair

Prof. Ricardo Sousa, Specialist in Knee Injuries and Bone and Joint Infections, Department of Orthopedics and Porto Bone and Joint Infection Group (GRIP) - ULS Hospital Santo António and Hospital Lusíadas (Porto)

Speakers

Prof. Martin McNally, Honorary Consultant in Limb Reconstruction Surgery, Oxford Bone Infection Unit, Nuffield Orthopaedic Centre, Oxford, United Kingdom

Prof. Nando Ferreira, Limb Reconstruction Specialist, Head of the Tumour, Sepsis and Reconstruction unit at the Division of Orthopaedic Surgery at Stellenbosch University, South Africa

Ass. Prof. Paul Matuszewski, Specialist in Trauma Surgery, Orthopaedic Surgery and Orthopaedic Trauma, University of Kentucky Hospital, Lexington, KY, United States

Dr. Domenico Tigani, Specialist in Orthopaedics and Traumatology, Head of the Complex Operative Unit of Orthopaedics and Traumatology at Maggiore Hospital, Bologna, Italy

Learn more

